

Various Websites/Phone Numbers Regarding The 2009 Flu Outbreak (H1N1 Virus)

Updated 4/4/2009

Maine CDC's Swine Flu page;

www.maine.gov/dhhs/boh/swine-flu-2009.shtml

Maine.Gov

www.maine.gov/tools/whatsnew

MEMA & Maine Prepares

www.maine.gov/mema and www.maineprepares.com

Maine CDC

www.mainepublichealth.gov

Federal CDC's home page

www.cdc.gov/swineflu/ -

CDC guidance for treating pregnant women.

www.cdc.gov/swineflu/clinician_pregnant.htm -

CDC's investigation of the current H1N1 outbreak

www.cdc.gov/swineflu/investigation.htm

CDC's Health Warning for Mexico.

www.cdc.gov/travel/contentSwineFluMexico.aspx -

CDC Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Guidance

http://www.cdc.gov/swineflu/guidance_ems.htm

Pandemic Flu Checklists

www.pandemicflu.gov/plan/checklists.html

DHHS instructions on collecting and submitting lab diagnostic specimens for H1N1 influenza testing.

www.maine.gov/dhhs/etl/micro/submitting_samples.htm -

Dept. of Education guidance www.maine.gov/education/swineflu.html -

www.maine.gov/education

Maine CDC's toll-free number: 1-888-257-0990

Maine CDC: (207) 287-6372

Dial "211" from any Maine phone to be connected to informational resources